DETAILED ACTION
EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Ms. Susan Yee on 7/31/2009.

1. (Currently Amended) A computer-implemented method comprising:

receiving from an application executing on a user terminal a database access statement at a web application server;

accessing a user-configurable key phrase from a key phrase file located in a shared directory accessible by a plurality of web application servers in response to receiving the database access statement of a distributed system responsive to the request for the connection information;

at the application server, combining a system identifier of the web application server with the user- configurable encryption key phrase to create an encryption key;

at the application server, obtaining an encrypted string from a secure storage file in the shared directory via a find operation;

at the application server, parsing the encrypted string into substrings; and at the application server, decrypting one of the substrings with the encryption key to obtain connection information to a database including a password and an address for the database.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1, 8, 12-13, 17-18, 20, 23, 25, 27-30, 36, 39 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The Applicant's invention is directed to accessing connection information stored in a database using a key, this key is combination of key phrase and system identifier of application. The primary reason for allowance of the claims is recent amendments to include user-configurable key being retrieved from a file and connection information having password and address of database.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
